

Meet Mrs. Anzualda School Counselor

Mrs. Dawn Anzualda has been a counselor for 13 years, working in private practice and as a school counselor. This is her 7th year in St Johns County Schools. Mrs. Anzualda earned her Elementary Education degree at UNF and her M.Ed. in Counseling at Tarleton State University. Dawn is a member of the American School Counselor Association and models her counseling program on the ASCA model. She enjoys her work with middle school students and their families. Mrs. Anzualda is a teacher at heart and visits classrooms regularly to conduct guidance lessons, and provides individual and small group counseling. Family is very important to Dawn and she has 2 amazing adult children and a supportive husband.
