About Me

Mrs. D'Niessa Slocum grew up in the Midwest and earned both her Bachelors in Chemistry and a Masters in Educational Leadership from Colorado State University.

Mrs. Slocum began her career in Colorado where she taught middle school math and science for 11 years. In 2018, she moved to St. Johns, Florida with her family and began working at Fruit Cove Middle School as a math teacher and Testing Coordinator. She is excited to continue her work at PVA for a second year as Assistant Principal.

Mrs. Slocum has a loving husband of 15 years and 3 children – an 8th grader at Fruit Cove Middle School and 2nd grade twins at Palm Valley Academy. They enjoy spending time at home, swimming, and playing with their dog, Baxter.
